Targeting children with a bioweapon next will "get people's attention."

After everything that's transpired over the past eighteen months, they haven't bothered to recall any toxic poisons posing as "vaccines." That's how we know they're working as intended.

What other explanation could there be that "health" agencies haven't recalled such deadly and destructive injections if they didn't want the death and destruction to continue?

They're still promoting the boosters, and simultaneously fear-mongering a new Covid "variant" that in their words "escapes the vaccines," all while ignoring the sudden death "coincidences" happening on youth sports fields, at sports journalists' desks, in airline cockpits and on live television programs for all the world to pretend there's nothing to see there.

That's seriously their latest message:

Get your booster to protect yourself and others from a variant that is vaccine-resistant.

Corky Thatcher from Life Goes On must have been promoted to Year Three Plandemic Chief Narrative Manager at Globopsyps HQ.

The greatest satirists of any generation couldn't come up with the material these cretins now produce, and it takes a special kind of dysfunctional brain to buy into any of it. Some might call those who still believe these narratives, severely retarded.

RETARD-From Latin and French; Re-again; Tard-late

In a satirical short film script I published last February called The Heavenly Halftime Show, I mocked the comic obviousness of past and current events prepared for the world by our bioterrorist Malthusian overlords.

It's a satire about future Super Bowl halftime shows starring one lucky contestant chosen from people all over the world who spins a wheel of pandemic viruses to determine what will be released as that year's deadly global virus. A group of Pharma executives and the head of DARPA (Deadly Advanced Respiratory Pathogenic Acquisition) spin a second wheel that determines which continent gets the limited "vaccines" that are already prepared and waiting for distribution for whichever virus is the winner on the first spin.

We might as well be living in that world already.

The first SARS virus from 2002 was an attempt to usher in a plandemic. You might recall the media at the time was doing its best to pump fear around the world, but it didn't spread as they hoped. Dr. David Martin has revealed that the first SARS was a lab-created virus with patents filed by Fauci's NIAID between 1999 and 2001. They tried again in 2009 with the swine flu but that didn't take either.

If at first you do not succeed, follow the Rockefeller playbook, corner the vaccine market, buy the media and the World Health Organization, populate all governments with loyal puppets, especially in their secret police alphabet agencies, and regulatory institutions, and try again.

Social media's ghastly dot gov controlled tentacles and the corrupt unification of all corporate media under one giant propaganda umbrella where behavioral psychologists prepare the scripts, headlines, music, and language helped lay the groundwork in January 2020 for the present Covid operation that bureaucratic functionaries and demented executive puppets still insist is an "emergency."

They war-gamed all of them over the decades under different operation names and event titles: Dark Winter, SPARS, Atlantic Storm, Clade-X, and Event 201.

In 2016 they even let X-Files creator Chris Carter program a few aspects of their current operation into the collective psyche of the social body through episode storylines that included gene tampering and immune system corruption delivered via trojan horse vaccines.

Wherever they failed with their first attempts, they cleaned things up and tightened the messaging, delivery, psychological manipulation, and narrative controls.

There's always a paper trail and a financial trail, and since they love to advertise their agenda ahead of time, there's really no secret about what they're doing as they do it. To believe this is to become two things that are really one and the same: a survivor and a conspiracy theorist.

And so as they prepare the next one, and the one after that, and the one after that, the conspiracy theorists will inherit the earth and be responsible for taking out the trash and cleaning up the mess.

Catastrophic Contagion: October 23, 2022. The latest plandemic simulation playdate.

In the latest Globopsycho bioterror play date they called Catastrophic Contagion which they performed publicly on October 23rd of this year, the actors included the usual suspects, John Hopkins Center for Health Security, The Gates Foundation, and the WHO, a Gates-controlled organization that will have 196 nations under its full control when the WHO Pandemic Treaty goes into effect in May of 2024.

They aligned this play date virus with their Satanic ways and labeled the phony "contagion" SEERS for Severe Epidemic Enterovirus Respiratory Syndrome. SEERS. Get it? As in one who can see the future. They're just rubbing our faces in this shit now and laughing all the way to the morgue. Forget the bank, none of this is ever about money for those who control the money printers, and soon the programmable digital currencies for the final phase of our enslavement.

SEERS can see this "virus" targeting children instead of posing as influenza symptoms and in Gates' own words it "will get people's attention."

When reflecting on their most recent plandemic performance it's clear there was no threat. They fabricated all of it, perhaps even the virus' existence. The idea of a virus or threat is all that really mattered, and they had to turn the fear dials up to eleven to create the hysteria needed for what was really the purpose of everything-injecting as many arms as possible with the real bioweapons. As Reiner Fullmich stated, "When you understand the vaccines were not created for the virus, but the virus was released for the waiting vaccines then everything begins to make sense."

If the virus was real, or really a threat, they wouldn't have been pumping the fear levels, they would have been trying to control the real hysteria by downplaying the threat. If they didn't have the vaccines in waiting they would have been trying to manage the public's authentic fear with optimism, and control the pandemonium with measured yet reasonable narratives.

It's the most certain way to ascertain the veracity of anything they plan. If they want to create fear, then you can be certain there's absolutely nothing to be afraid of and there is no threat at all, only the illusion of one so they can hoard more power, decapitate more of whatever of our liberties remain and keep us imprisoned psychologically in the perceptions of their own fantasy so that our actions and behavior become a reaction to their created crises.

If you can keep your head when all those around you are losing theirs, you'll be a man my son.<sup>1</sup>

They're presently laying the psychological shelling to imprint us with the ever-present threat of viruses, that can strike everywhere and anywhere. It's all part of a developed psychological program of operant conditioning.

They war gamed their Monkeypox farce in March with an announced release date set for May 15 and sure enough in mid-may Monkeypox headlines were everywhere with no serious threat to anyone not attending male homosexual orgies.

They attempted to repeat the Monkeypox outbreaks like they did the Convid scam with regional "cases" appearing here and there and never naming the group it affected or why. Then like magic, they had a vaccine ready to go for Monkeypox and the states began overpaying for the toxic shots that homosexual men who like homosexual orgies would line up for by June and July like retarded guinea pigs.

No "health" officials mentioned the words self-control or abstention, but they sure did promote the hell out of those worthless "vaccines." And just to be on the safe side the same "health" officials were sure to rename the virus Mpox because apparently, Monkeypox is offensive to homosexual men or something?

But targeting the gay community, and black orphan boys with deadly toxic drugs is nothing new for Fauci and his "health" ilk nevermind "offensive" language. They killed a quarter million with AZT in addition to hundreds of black orphan boys, many of whom all ended up in a mass grave in New York.

This is the same guy who became the highest-paid government official and was put in charge of the "most dangerous pandemic" since the Spanish Flu, appearing on television every night to offer "health" advice.

More recently they've tried a new hand at the virus card table with MERS at the World Cup. It's like SARS-2 Act One, but instead of bats, they substituted camels.

George Webb has been tracking the MERS and MERS-2 scams (DARPA) for years, including here on substack and in his book World War DARPA.

MERS: What to Know About the Virus and if it Will Spread After the World Cup

The Gates Foundation, working with DARPA and The WHO, labeled the last decade one of "vaccines" and this present decade one of pandemics. And they would know because they're the scriptwriters, directors, producers, and actors in these bioterror play dates.

What does all this portend for the future and for us victims of their bioterror Malthusian agenda?

Connecting some simple dots we can see that the past few attempts to create hysteria around MERS and Moneypox didn't stick. They're pushing seasonal illness now in terms that they amplify weather events like winter storms which are now dubbed BOMB CYCLONES! The latest "TRIPLEDEMIC!" is an attempt to cover for the mRNA-created VAIDS.

Immune systems are shot and the more fearful and cautious people are in "distancing" and hiding away from "threats" the less practice their immune systems get with healthy exposure to germs. Combine that with the injections they line up for, and they are perfect targets susceptible to acquiring all manner of illnesses including cancers.

As for the future, this latest Catastrophic play date with the year 2025 attached to a fictional virus called SEERS likely means that sometime in late 2024, AFTER the WHO pandemic treaty has captured 196 nations under its power for "pandemic response," yet months BEFORE the next U.S. election (so they can do their vote-by-mail scam again) they will probably announce the next one.

It will start with psyops, images of workers in full contagion suits treating children in hyperbaric wrapped gurneys, announcements by the CDC, emergency meetings of The WHO, and global corporate propagandists all reading from the same alphabet agency behavior psychologist written scripts.

Governments will respond like a symphony in concerto, ceding their response authority to the Ethiopian communist rat who heads the WHO, and altogether they'll run the fear thermometers that only go up to ten, all the way up to eleven.

That's how we'll know there's no real threat.

How they'll target children this time with mass hospicide is anyone's guess. Perhaps there's something already in millions of them who got the Covid shots, some kind of trojan horse infection that can be remotely or frequency-activated.

It doesn't really matter, all they need to do is use PCR to create a casademic to scare the shit out of parents who will rush their children to the Emergency Rooms at the first sight of an elevated temperature where doctors will do the rest.

Fauci will have left instructions on what failed cancer drug to approve for EUA to inject the children with to make sure they die of renal failure or suffocate within a week.

This will be the apex of SEERS Act One just before the transition to Act Two where we all wait locked down at home for their instructions and the magic mRNA injections they've already prepared and are in the process of "testing" on six or eight mice. You know how the rest of the play goes, except this time the jabs will be mandated and participation in society will require digital IDs tied to vaccination status.

So we have exactly less than two years until the next one. No more than twenty months to get prepared psychologically and physically, and perhaps most importantly geographically as not all countries will terrorize their citizens to the same degree.

They've announced their intentions like they did the previous time. No reason not to take them at their word. They love letting us know how they will terrorize us and try and kill us before they do it.

They know it. We know it. They know that we know it.

And Bill Gates loves every minute of it.

There's a reason that anytime corporate media speaks to someone about viruses, vaccines, and medicine they call on a college dropout and the guy who couldn't keep viruses from infecting your computer software.

It's easy to predict the appropriate "solutions" to the next Catastrophic Contagion when you're the one funding every act of the play.
