Wikileaks Is Zionist Poison I

Disinformation is defined as 'misinformation that is deliberately disseminated in order to influence or confuse rivals.' It is used by governments to mislead and brainwash their citizen populations, instigate wars, and blackmail foreign regimes. It is the ultimate instrument of the media. The most effective disinformation is that which is comprised of falsehood as well as facts. Wikileaks, founded by Julian Assange, fits this description perfectly, right down to the letter. Seemingly overnight, it has become one of the biggest 'whistle-blowing' agencies in modern history. In reality though, it is one of the biggest disinformation projects in modern history, and it may be the most dangerous because it is masquerading as an organization of truth. The information released by Wikileaks isn't new; it isn't groundbreaking; it doesn't hurt the US as much as people think, it's fractional really; and it is overloaded with as much as propaganda as the day-to-day Zionist media is. This propaganda is benefitting someone. And that someone is the illegal usurping entity of Israel. Even the Israeli government itself thinks so.

Afghanistan Drivel

The first major 'leak' released earlier this year by Assange was about occupied Afghanistan in the form of more than 92,000 documents. These docs included 'secret files' about civilian killings by the US and NATO along with boogeyman stories about the long-dead Osama Bin Laden, garbage regarding the Taliban acquiring ground-to-air missiles, and plenty of lies about Pakistan's intelligence agency, the ISI. There wasn't a single document about the Israeli training of the Taliban, the massive drug profiteering by the Mossad, the CIA and the US-puppet Hamid Karzai and his brother, Karzai's connections to Unocal and Zionist war criminal Henry Kissinger), the clandestine Israeli business operations set up to take control of the oil fields in neighboring Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan, and Kazakhstan, or the Russian-Jewish mafia, fully protected by the Zionist entity, selling guns to US-backed Afghan warlords. Why weren't any of these massively important, critically damning events and operations mentioned? Because by doing so, it would incriminate the already internationally condemned Zionist regime. Journalists, bloggers and activists, from occupied Afghanistan and abroad, have been reporting on the vast civilian casualties in Afghanistan since US intervention began more than 30 years ago. Wikileaks revealed nothing that wasn't already known; however, it did reinforce Zionist propaganda regarding the illegal 'war on terror.'

Iraq Malarkey

The next major 'leak' by Assange's organization, which has gained more notoriety than the previous 'leak,' was about occupied Iraq in the form of nearly 400,000 documents. Like the occupied Afghanistan disinformation, it included 'secret files' about mass civilian killings by US forces, torture by war criminal Nouri al-Maliki and his forces (which according to Wikileaks, US military officials attempted to halt), US government failings in reprimanding Blackwater (XE) for committing murder, and brutal executions by the American and British occupiers mixed with more tripe about fictitious Al-Qaeda, nonsense about Iran training militant Iraqi militias and Iranian drones flying over Iraq, Iran smuggling guns, munitions, and explosives into Iraq, ridiculous accusations of the Lebanese Resistance movement Hezbollah training Iraqis in the art of kidnaping, slanderous attacks on Iran's Revolutionary Guard, and other absurd assertions about the Islamic Republic involved in the murder of innocent Iraqis. The Wikileaks Iraq war logs also 'reveal' civilian casualties numbered at 66,081. The logs also 'reveal' that Iraqi WMDs actually did exist, as US soldiers found chemical weapons labs, terrorist toxin specialists, and chemical weapons caches.

There was nothing 'secret' about American and British forces murdering, torturing and raping innocents in occupied Iraq. Like Afghanistan, Iraqi and international journalists, bloggers, and activists have been reporting the murder of civilians in Iraq since the beginning of the illegal occupation, with much more effectiveness than Wikileaks. The US military didn't attempt to halt the puppet al-Maliki's torture of unlawfully imprisoned Iraqis, they partook in it. They led the way after they signed off on it. They were the primary perpetrators. Secret prisons are still operating at this very moment where US forces barbarously torture innocent Iraqis. The US hired Blackwater's contractors to instill fear and execute terrorism against the people of Iraq, of course it didn't reprimand them. Erik Prince's private army of terror was only doing what it was told to by the US government.

The concept of Hezbollah training foreign militias to meddle in state affairs is absolute lunacy; Sayyed Hassan Nasrallah himself has stated on numerous occasions that if Hezbollah wanted to overthrow the Lebanese government, they would've done so already. Their objectives (as evidenced by their actions), are to protect the Lebanese people, provide them with security and uphold their dignity. Hezbollah hasn't undermined its own government, it is asinine to think it would undermine the government of another nation. The propaganda targeting Iran is pathetic; there are enough guns in Iraq thanks to American support of Saddam Hussein to last lifetimes, there was no need for Iran to provide weapons to Iraqi militias through 'smuggling.' The only drones that were flying in Iraq's skies belonged to the repulsive Zionist entity, not Iran. The other accusations sound like concoctions dug up from the dungeons of Zionist think tanks and lobby organizations salivating for the destruction of the Islamic Republic, not the work of whistle-blowers attempting to expose corruption and disseminate truth. These accusations further the Zionist case for striking Iran militarily. These accusations are promoting more war, not peace.

Wikileaks must not have gotten the memo about civilian casualties in occupied Iraq. They are nowhere near 66,081. They have eclipsed the 1.5 million mark. Anything less than this, especially a number as low as the one presented by Wikileaks, is classic misreporting aimed at protecting the United States government and its collaborators. That is an insult to the 5 million Iraqi orphans and the 5 million Iraqi refugees. It is a slap in the face to the dead Iraqis whose names will never be known because they were incinerated by US and Israeli weaponry. And the notion that US soldiers found WMDs in Iraq, after the 'Iraq has WMDs' myth has been debunked as Zionist-designed propaganda over and over again, is frankly, infuriating. The only WMDs that exist in Iraq are the mark-77, white phosphorus, and thousands of tons of depleted uranium used in Basra, Baghdad, and Fallujah by the terrorist army of the US and strategically placed Mossad agents of Israel.

Targeted On Behalf Of Israel

Where are the leaks on the 55 Zionist companies profiting from Iraqi blood being spilled? Where are the leaks on Iraq's artifacts being stolen by Zionist agents? Where are the leaks on hundreds of Mossad agents operating in Mosul? Where are the leaks on the Mossad bomb-making facility in Kirkuk? Where are the leaks on the Mossad murderers stationed in several villages around the devastated area of Fallujah? Where are the leaks on the depleted-uranium-tipped IEDs of Zionist-owned Zapata Engineering that have massacred thousands in Najaf, Karbala and Tal Afar, just to name a few? Where are the leaks on the Israeli arms dealers supplying weapons to CIA-trained death squads? Where are the leaks on Zionist war criminal Paul Wolfowitz importing Shin Bet torture experts to train the US military? Where are the leaks on Mossad conducting interrogations and torture in Iraq jails, including Abu Ghraib? Where are the leaks that will actually tie the illegal war, which was exclusively designed by Zionists, to Israel? They don't exist because Wikileaks isn't concerned with uncovering the truth regarding the real criminals; they're concerned with leading the public away from the truth to keep them under control. It's COINTELPRO all over again.

The target of Wikileaks' first release was the Islamic Republic of Pakistan. The objectives of the operation were to give credibility to war criminal Obama's illegal drone strikes that have murdered over 1,000 civilians, raise the possibility of a future overt occupation, and cover up the meddling of Israel in occupied Afghanistan. It is vital to note that the de-stabilization of Pakistan has been a Zionist objective since the declaration of al-Nakbah architect, David Ben-Gurion. The target of Wikileaks' second release was the Islamic Republic of Iran. The objective of this operation was to slander two of the very few entities on earth resisting Israel, Hezbollah and Iran; as well as cover up the Zionist fingerprints all over the mutilation of Iraq. The IAEA has already inadvertently foiled the Zionist plan to attack Iran based on the nuclear premise, confirming that the Iranian nuclear program is peaceful in nature and has nothing to do with weaponization. The Zionist hasbara experts needed to try something new; through Wikileaks, the accusations of the Zionist Bush administration against Iran have resurfaced under the guise of 'whistle-blowing.' What a sham.

Conclusion

A final note needs to be made about Julian Assange, the man who has been praised as a freedom fighter, a revolutionary and a friend of the oppressed people. In a recent interview, he stated, "I'm constantly annoyed that people are distracted by false conspiracies such as 9/11, when all around we provide evidence of real conspiracies, for war or mass financial fraud." It's shameful that Assange is annoyed by those seeking truth regarding the reason 1.5 million innocents are dead in occupied Iraq, 1.2 million innocents are dead in occupied Afghanistan, and thousands of more innocent men, women and children are dead in occupied Palestine, Lebanon, Pakistan, Yemen and Somalia. 9/11 is anything but a false conspiracy; there is overwhelming evidence that American and Israeli officials didn't just have foreknowledge of the event, but planned the attack and carried it out. It was a Mossad-CIA false flag used to protect the Zionist entity from any future military threat and expand the parasitic hegemony of the US and the illegitimate Tel Aviv regime throughout the world via the Zionist-inspired 'war on terror.' Someone insulting the seekers of 9/11 truth, slandering the righteous movement of Hezbollah, spreading propaganda about Iran which adds to the demonization campaign levied against the Islamic Republic by the Zionist lobby and the Zionist media, and deliberately leaving out Israeli crimes in occupied Afghanistan and Iraq is no freedom fighter; such a person is a liar and a propagandist.

Wikileaks' most recent 'leak' about occupied Iraq was delivered to several mainstream news outlets including Al-Jazeera, the Zionist New York Times, Der Spiegel of Germany, which has smeared Hezbollah in the past by despicably accusing the Resistance of selling narcotics, Zionist-controlled Le Monde of France which has also smeared Hezbollah recently and The Guardian of the UK, in packages, as if it was some sort of gift for a holiday. This isn't a leak. This isn't an expose. This is a press release. This is a media spectacle. This is a circus to cover up real crimes. Those interested in seeing a real leak, in addition to real courage, should read the story of Mordechai Vanunu, who blew the whistle on Israel's nuclear program and has spent the last 26 years in and out of Israel's inhumane prisons, including 18 years consecutively with 11 of those years in solitary confinement.

Iraq was annihilated for the Zionist regime, as was Afghanistan. When discussing the destruction of these nations, and the murder of millions of their people, it is integral to the understanding of the crimes committed to discuss the Israeli role in these crimes. Any person or institution failing to do so is ignorant, a coward or a collaborationist. None of these persons have any place in the movement to restore the occupied lands to the indigenous people and bring their tormentors to justice. By supporting Wikileaks, you are not fighting the occupier. You are not honoring the martyrs. You are not combating imperialism. And you are not striking back at the oppressor. You are supporting Israel and the cover-up of the activities of its criminal network. Wikileaks is Zionist poison. Wake up.

Wikileaks Is Zionist Poison II - Deconstruction Of The Myth

Not since Zionist warmonger Barack Obama's 'ascension' to the US presidency, has there been such a hysteria in the anti-war/anti-Zionist community as there is with Julian Assange and his organization, Wikileaks. Just like Obama, whose smooth-talker persona duped millions of awakened individuals, lulling them into a false sense of security with lies and trickery, Wikileaks has pulled the wool over the eyes of average people and distinguished activists and writers alike with its 'whistleblower' image. Even after Obama's Zionist roots were exposed, in which powerful pro-Israel figures like Abner Mikva, Joel Sprayregen, Newton Minow, Bettylu Saltzman of the dynastic Saltzman family, Rabbi Arnold Jacob Wolf, Lester Crown of the vastly wealthy Crown household and Penny Pritzker of the Pritzker dynasty nurtured his rise to political stardom in Chicago, the current puppet of the Zionist entity was no less supported and no less loved by his starry-eyed followers.

After Obama was designated the democratic 'candidate' for president, he delivered a speech at AIPAC and announced to his masters that the United States has an 'unshakeable commitment to Israel's security.' Still, the opinions of his followers remained unchanged. And not even after Obama maintained utter silence during Operation Cast Lead, in which the usurping Tel Aviv regime murdered 1,440 innocent Palestinians in illegally besieged and occupied Gaza, including 431 children, did his legions of drones realize that the slogans of hope and change they so vehemently believed in, were really just smoke and mirrors. Only recently, due to Obama spreading the Zionist Bush administration's 'Project for a New American Century' to Yemen, expanding the murderous drone strikes in Pakistan, as well as increasing the genocides in occupied Iraq and occupied Afghanistan, have some of his once seemingly mind-controlled supporters snapped out of their trance. Plenty of them still continue their blindness however.

Assange and Wikileaks make the Zionist-fueled Obama hype look minuscule; like rain drops in an ocean. Wikileaks, touted and fully endorsed by the Zionist media, has become the peak of resistance and dissidence. The greatest whistleblower in the history of whistleblowing. Assange has been elevated to god status, eclipsing rock stars and movie stars. Wikileaks cannot be questioned. Assange cannot be investigated. Everything the organization does is for the good of the people, and everything Assange says is absolute 100% fact.

Though it may come as a shock to those who have bought into the absurdity of Wikileaks, everything aforementioned is a morbid delusion. Wikileaks is no whistleblower. Assange is no hero. And the leaks, which have been hailed across the globe, aren't even leaks. Wikileaks isn't just toxic Zionist poison, it is a full-blown US-Zionist intelligence operation.

Israeli Foreknowledge and Arrogance

One day after the World Trade Center was demolished with military-grade thermite explosives, mass murderer of Gaza Benjamin Netanyahu told the Zionist-owned New York Times that the 9/11 attacks were 'very good' for US-Israeli relations, and that they would generate immediate sympathy for the Zionist entity. One year after Netanyahu made these audacious declarations, he delivered a speech to the US House of Representatives, laying out reasons why the obliteration of Iraq is necessary for the survival of Israel. In 2008, the Zionist war criminal delivered a speech to an Israeli university, reiterating his comments about the Mossad false flag on 9/11, as well as stating that his regime is benefitting from the 'American struggle in Iraq.' As recent as July of this year, Netanyahu has publicly declared that any withdrawal from Iraq will leave the Tel Aviv regime vulnerable to 'renewed hostilities.'

Netanyahu continued this pattern of arrogant behavior with Wikileaks, by revealing that the usurping entity had prior knowledge to the organization's upcoming leaks on the day that 'Cablegate' began, just hours before the release. Netanyahu stated that the Zionist entity wouldn't be the 'center of international attention.' The following day, Netanyahu reaffirmed this revelation by stating that Israel 'wasn't harmed at all;' a senior official in his Zionist administration also said that 'we come out looking very good.' On the same day, former national security advisors to butcher of Lebanon Ehud Olmert and Sabra and Shatilah massacre architect Ariel Sharon boasted that 'Israel benefits from these leaks.' Israel's Finance Minister, Yuval Steinitz, when asked about the leaks on Israel Radio, said that he 'doesn't see damage. Quite the opposite.' Israeli mouthpiece newspapers emboldened the statements of their murderous leaders, with one opining that 'had Wikileaks not existed, Israel would have had to invent it.' This statement in particular will prove not only to be devilishly ironic, but another example of Israeli foreknowledge.

While nations all over the world, nations of Resistance and nations of oppression alike, scrambled to defend themselves from the Wikileaks onslaught, several officials of the illegitimate Zionist state, including the prime minister himself, openly affirmed the impregnableness of Israel. No damage, a bounty of satisfaction and a plethora of benefits. The questions are simple: If the Zionist entity isn't behind Wikileaks, how did its officials know it wouldn't become the subject of international media scrutiny? If Wikileaks wasn't protecting the Zionist agenda, why would Israeli officials intransigently say their illegal occupying entity remained unharmed after the leaks? And if in fact Israel is operating Wikileaks, then the Zionist media's depictions of Assange and his crew as whistleblowers are monstrously false, aren't they? Logic and common sense should guide all to the blatant, blue and white six-pointed-star-shaped answers.

Cablegate Fraud I: The Obviousness

Like the Afghan War Diary and the Iraq War Logs which mixed Zionist hasbara with facts about American and British war crimes, Wikileaks' Cablegate documents mix truths with Zionist lies to maximize the potential of the disinformation campaign. And like the previous leaks, the truths that are released are examples that were revealed and reported on by activists and journalists alike long before Wikileaks was relentlessly and aggressively force-fed to the masses by the Zionist media.

Included are shockers like Israel attempted to coordinate its Operation Cast Lead assault on illegally blockaded Gaza with traitorous Palestinian collaborationist Mahmoud Abbas and the brutal Zionist dictator of Egypt, Hosni Mubarak. Revelations like Ali Abdullah Saleh, US-Saudi puppet president of Yemen, covered up US air strikes that murdered children. Discoveries like the US is waging a 'secret' war inside Pakistan. Eye-openers like a Lebanese official offering advice to the Zionist entity on how to trample the Lebanese Resistance movement, Hezbollah, or the US flying spy missions over Lebanon from its Diego Garcia base. Or quite possibly the largest and most apocalyptic divulgement: the Israeli mafia exists prominently within the illegitimate usurping entity, and is a very, very dangerous group. How incredibly overwhelming. The name of Assange's putrid organization should be Wikiobviousness, not Wikileaks.

Mahmoud Abbas has been exposed over and over again as a treasonist to the Palestinian people since he became an integral part of Middle Eastern politics, or more accurately, the Zionist Power Configuration. Since 2005, Abbas's Palestinian 'Authority' has been cooperating with the Zionist entity through 'security coordination,' which links the two illegitimate powers to a crackdown on all elements that support Resistance to Zionism. Despite denial after denial by Abbas himself and his spokespersons, he finally admitted to this filthy collaboration in March of this year. Israel and Mubarak's regime have transferred weapons to Abbas, and the US has given Fatah hundreds of millions of dollars in aid to undermine Palestinian Resistance, chiefly Hamas, and to strengthen the Zionist stranglehold on occupied Palestine. Mahmoud Abbas has deep financial ties to Tel Aviv, which also amounts to hundreds of millions of dollars given to Fatah by the Israeli government yearly. Wikileaks wasn't needed for this; anyone that is simply capable of reading is well-aware that Abbas is a disgrace to the Palestinian people and a total puppet of the Zionist entity.

Ali Abdullah Saleh is a traitor to the Yemeni people; like Abbas, this has been known for decades. He sold Yemen to the Anglo-American oil agenda, and then solidified the sellout by entering into billion dollar slave-agreements with the Zionist-infested World Bank and IMF. Saleh is a habitual recipient of the American oppressor's aid money, and as of January of this year, he's been receiving this blood money on an even greater scale. He has used these funds along with money from the House of Saud to wage a brutal war against the Resistance of southern Yemen. The US dropped cluster bombs on Yemen in December of 2009, and it was well reported in the alternative media sphere; this murderous attack claimed the lives of 120 innocents and wounded 40 others, not 41 as Assange's organization erroneously reports. Telling the world that American bombs kill civilians is like telling someone that the sky is blue or that the sun is hot. There was no need for 'whistleblowing' on this matter.

Yemen is Zion's newest target; sickeningly pro-Israel war criminal Joe Lieberman called for preemptive strikes against the Arab nation last year in late December, and Obama's Zionist administration obliged by increasing its illegal military presence inside the country. Despite wide-ranged reporting in the Zionist media and the anti-Zionist media, Ali Abdullah Saleh continued his role as a stooge, and denied the presence of America inside Yemen. Now, Obama and his gang of criminals have set forth a plan for an even larger military mobilization which will be followed by an occupation. In addition, Mossad is carrying out assassinations and other terrorist operations against the Yemeni Resistance in the south. Don't expect to see any of this information in the Cablegate documents though; Wikileaks must protect Israel at all costs.

The CIA has been conducting a war with its murderous predator drones against Pakistan since 2004, and it has been doing so from Pakistani bases thanks to one criminal administration after another. 90% of the people murdered by these CIA drones are civilians, and these attacks occur close to every single day. It was reported in 2008, and in February of 2010, that US Special Forces were engaging in terrorism on the ground in Pakistan. Wikileaks didn't 'reveal' anything about a 'secret war' inside the Islamic Republic; it stated a fact that could've been reiterated by anyone with a slight interest in geopolitics.

The real secret war against Pakistan is that which is being conducted by Israel and the Hindutva entity of India. Since the late 1980s, Zionism and Hindutva have signed military agreements and performed covert operations to destroy Pakistan's nuclear program. In 2001, Mossad and RAW created four new agencies to target important personalities in the fields of law, defense, politics and religion, with the hopes of creating all out 'sectarian' chaos within Pakistan. Codenamed the 'Dragon Policy,' Mossad and RAW agents hired mercenaries, druglords and mafia figures to unleash the destabilization process. Indian and Israeli intelligence have coordinated a string of car bombings with Xe (Blackwater) cells across the Islamic Republic, including the massive blast that claimed more than 100 lives in Peshawar, a Mossad stronghold, in 2009.

Hezbollah Secretary General, his eminence, Sayyed Hassan Nasrallah, has never been bashful about exposing pro-Zionist politicians in Lebanon, with his most recent slashing of the collaborators taking place during a historic speech for Martyrs' Day. While Elias al-Murr has denied the allegations set forth by the Wikileaks PSYOP, he is merely and pathetically attempting to save face; it is a well-known fact that the vile Fouad Siniora government (which al-Murr was a part of) tried to disarm Hezbollah and disconnect the Resistance's telecommunications network on behalf of the Zionist regime and the US. Siniora and his goons failed miserably as Hezbollah persevered and triumphed.

It is also a well known fact that the US conducts spying and military operations, primarily against occupied Iraq and the Islamic Republic of Iran, from Diego Garcia; the Indian Ocean territory turned into a military compound by British and American occupiers who have malevolently ethnically cleansed the entire indigenous population. On a side note, this evil of course isn't mentioned by Wikileaks. The mentioning of a few previously known American spy missions in Lebanon is nothing more than a cover for the massive Zionist creature in the room: Israel is notorious for its spy missions in Lebanon, as it has violated Lebanese airspace well over 7,000 times since its crushing defeat at the hands of Hezbollah in the summer of 2006.

Failing to mention Zionist activity in Lebanon is the equivalent of failing to mention the stars in the sky at nightfall. The Lebanese Resistance and the Lebanese Army have arrested at least 141 Israeli spies since April of last year, in the telecommunications, security and military sectors. The Zionist entity infiltrated Alfa, one of Lebanon's two telecom companies, and used the penetrated network against Hezbollah in the 2006 war. Sayyed Hassan Nasrallah exposed the assassination of former Lebanese Prime Minister Rafiq Hariri as a Mossad operation, and in an unsuspected but typical display of arrogance, Israel admitted to benefitting greatly from the murder. Tel Aviv had distanced itself from the Special Tribunal for Lebanon (STL), which is backed by the US, as well as the UK, but the genocidal maniac Avigdor Lieberman finally confirmed what had been known in Lebanon since the Tribunal's inception: Israel is heavily contributing to it.

The STL is not only a plot to eliminate Hezbollah, but to completely fragment Lebanon; it should come as no surprise then, that it was designed by Zionist Congressman Howard Berman and the powerful Israeli Lobby group, AIPAC. Sayyed Nasrallah uncovered that all of the information collected by the STL ends up in the hands of the usurping Zionist regime; it is essentially another Israeli spying operation. The Sayyed also revealed that Israel had not only penetrated Alfa, but all of Lebanon's telecommunications; the Zionist regime is capable of cloning SIM cards, planting phone numbers, duplicating billing data and making phone calls without the phone-owner's knowledge. Just days ago, Hezbollah telecommunications experts unearthed Israeli spying devices near the southern city of Tyre; when the Zionist entity's cover was blown, the devices were detonated. Not even an inkling of any of this information will be made readily available by treacherous Wikileaks because its purpose is to protect Israeli interests. And at the top of the list of those interests, is to colonize Lebanon, especially the south, as part of Greater Israel.

On the surface, it would seem that the revelations about the influence of Israeli organized crime (OC) within the Zionist settler state are groundbreaking; frightening and shocking even. But further analysis of the cable in question displays more of the same: a repetition of previously known information crossbred with odious lies to form a highly effective damage control operation. It was reported across the Middle East, as well as in Zionist-owned Western media that Israeli mob boss Yaakov Alperon was assassinated in 2008, as was the intransigence of Israeli mafia stalwart Zeev Rosenstein, who was arrested in 2004 for the distribution of unfathomable amounts of ecstasy. It was also already known that the new generation of Israeli gangsters were receiving training in the fields of assassination and ordnance during their service in IOF. These cases of obviousness however do not vindicate Wikileaks but condemn it in an even harsher manner due to the propaganda also contained within the cable.

The cable states 'It is not entirely clear to what extent OC elements have penetrated the Israeli establishment and corrupt public officials.' What an obscene falsification; since the 1980s, the Israeli mafia has exerted a gargantuan amount of control over the occupying government in Tel Aviv, coordinating this corruption from New York City and the streets of occupied Palestine. The cable also portrays Zionist war criminal Ehud Olmert in a positive light, saying that Olmert called emergency meetings in response to the public safety concerns and promised to add 1,000 officers to the current efforts 'combating' organized crime. Another sham; Olmert is a criminal that is incessantly connected to the Israeli mafia. Olmert has been charged with corruption regarding Bank Leumi, whom notorious blood-diamond dealer Lev Leviev has a major stake in. Leviev is deeply connected to organized crime, due to his business ties with Russian-Israeli oligarch and mobster Roman Abramovich.

Quite possibly the most laughable excerpt of all in the entire cable is this statement: 'Little is known about the full extent of Russian criminal activity in Israel.' The Israeli mafia IS the Russian-Jewish mafia. The two cannot be separated; like the illegitimate Israeli state and Zionism. The cable also says Arab criminals routinely collaborate with Russian-Israeli crime families. This is erroneous; an attempt to divide the blame equally amongst Arabs and Israelis. The Red Mafiya (Russian Mob) is intensely racist and territorial, collaborating with no one but other Russian factions in their quest for criminal dominance. The Russian criminals not only poured into Israel after the Soviet Union was dissolved, they were invited by the Zionist entity's government to start their lives anew.

The most powerful gangster in the world, and don of the Russian-Israeli mafia, Semion Mogilevich has his headquarters in Israel; his net worth is well over one billion dollars, wielding a criminal empire that involves human trafficking, drug dealing, arms peddling, nuclear materials smuggling and blood diamonds. Marat Balagula, another immensely powerful Russian-Jewish gangster made his home in the Zionist entity after leaving the Soviet Union. Balagula's empire includes gas fraud, credit card fraud, and the usual elements of drugs, illegal weaponry and prostitution, along with ownership of diamond mines in Sierra Leone. Russian-Israeli organized crime, the Organizatsiya, cannot be talked about without mentioning these two prominent figures. It is no surprise that Wikileaks conveniently leaves their names out of the 'leaks.' Also left out of the cables is the most damning information about the Red Mafiya of all: unlike Italian-American mobsters, Russian-Jewish mobsters cannot be touched by US intelligence and local law enforcement, for fear of being hammered and character-assassinated by the Zionist lobby for exercising anti-Semitism.

The power of the Red Mafiya was exposed by the late Robert Friedman, a journalist who began investigating the Russian-Jewish criminal gang in 1989, and who wrote a monumental book about their exploits more than a decade ago. His work brought the nonstop heat of Russian-Jewish OC on top of his head, receiving several threats by high-ranking gangsters. Despite media reports of him dying of a rare disease he contracted while on an investigative mission in Bombay (Mumbai), all evidence points to the brave Mr. Friedman being poisoned by Mogilevich's associates. Just like Assange, right?

The destruction of the Wikileaks cables in this section provides clear proof of what Assange's group actually is: a 'Limited Hang Out' operation. Limited Hang Out ops are used by intelligence agencies to deliver well-known information to the public about government corruption and certain political crimes, satisfying their salivation for an expose of misdeeds while withholding the more critical, more secretive information. Wikileaks doesn't reveal; it rehashes. Former director of Mossad Efraim Halevy stated in an interview several years ago, 'Not one big success of the Mossad has ever been made public.' Wikileaks works diligently to keep it that way.

Cablegate Fraud II: Disgusting Zionist Lies

In a previous piece on Wikileaks, this author commented, 'The other accusations sound like concoctions dug up from the dungeons of Zionist think tanks and lobby organizations salivating for the destruction of the Islamic Republic, not the work of whistle-blowers attempting to expose corruption and disseminate truth.' This observation turned out to be a prognostication come true. The cables aren't really secret government documents. They are propaganda pieces written by Khazarian political officials and diplomats who have spent their lives serving the Israeli Lobby. Among them are US ambassadors to Turkey Eric Edelman and James Jeffrey, Deputy Secretary of State James B. Steinberg, US ambassador to Brazil Clifford Sobel, US charge d'affaires in Saudi Arabia Michael Gfoeller, Assistant Secretary for European and Eurasian Affairs Philip H. Gordon, career diplomat and current Special Envoy Daniel Fried and US ambassador to Canada David Jacobson. This revelation explains why the newest docs from Wikileaks contain even more Zionist drivel than the last release.

The diplomatic cables claim that it was Hamas that broke the ceasefire that led to Operation Case Lead. They also brazenly claim that the Zionist entity has no assets in occupied Iraq. They insanely say that India has a huge stake in the facilitation of peace in occupied Kashmir. The cables belligerently claim that Syrians assassinated Lebanese Premier Saad Hariri's father, former Premier Rafiq Hariri. There is more tiresome tripe about leader of the Islamic Revolution in Iran, Grand Ayatollah Sayyed Ali Khamenei, having terminal cancer. There is another ridiculous claim that there is an Israeli weapons manufacturer in Haifa which is vital to US security interests. One cable disgustingly repeats the age-old Zionist propaganda about Israel attempting to minimize civilian casualties and Hamas using human shields. And arguably the most outlandish cable of all, Libyan leader Muammar al-Gaddafi intimidated the British government into freeing wrongfully accused Abdelbaset Mohmed Ali al-Megrahi.

Claiming that the fighters of the Palestinian Resistance, whether it is Hamas or any other faction, use human shields, is a grotesque Zionist lie. There is no evidence on any level whatsoever; it is a nightmarish concoction of the hasbara squads that run the Zionist media. However, there is undeniable evidence that the Zionist entity's occupation forces have used Palestinian human shields on numerous occasions; 15 times since 2005 began. Two IOF soldiers were 'convicted' in Israel's kangaroo courts of using a 9-year boy as a human shield. The boy, Majid, will be scarred for the rest of his life for the horrific abuse he endured at the hands of IOF; the soldiers who abused him were demoted and given suspended sentences in an all too typical display of Zionist justice.

It is another aberration of the historical record to state that Hamas broke the ceasefire, when Hamas did not fire a single rocket into the territory occupied by Zion in the four months since the calm between occupied and occupier began. Tel Aviv discarded the cease-fire when it calculatingly murdered 6 Hamas officials in a raid on November 5, 2008. When Hamas returned fire to defend itself and the people of occupied Gaza, the murderous Zionist entity had the pretext it needed to launch Operation Cast Lead, which had been planned years in advance by the upper echelons of the Israeli government, Mossad, Shin Bet and Aman (Israeli military intelligence). Is there an organization outside of the media itself that spews Zionist propaganda better than Wikileaks?

Obviously, Ayatollah Sayyed Ali Khamenei isn't dying of cancer; this absurd allegation has been repeated over and over through the years by several mainstream media outlets. It was reported in 2006 that the revolutionary leader was 'dying of serious cancer and wouldn't live much more than a year.' In 2007, it was reported as fact that Sayyed Khamenei was dead from his 'long battle' with cancer. In 2009, foul Zionist Michael Ledeen wrote that the Ayatollah collapsed into a coma as a result of his cancer. It should be noted that Ledeen, who has close ties with AIPAC and Zionist war criminal Richard Perle, has been a driving force behind the idea that Iran is behind all of the chaos in occupied Iraq, which Wikileaks presented a b case for in its propaganda-filled Iraq War Logs. Taking into account that the diplomatic cables are in fact written by Zionists, the connection between Ledeen and Wikileaks isn't all that surprising. This petty and childish claim about the Ayatollah having cancer is part of a broader psychological warfare operation to discredit, disunite and utterly humiliate the Islamic Republic. The Ayatollah's 'cancer' can be placed in the trash alongside other nonsense like Mahmoud Ahmadinejad's Jewish roots and the Israeli star being engraved into several buildings in Tehran.

Not only has Saad Hariri himself already rejected the claims of Syria being behind his father's brutal assassination, as mentioned in a previous section, Sayyed Hassan Nasrallah has provided hard evidence that the Zionist entity was the orchestrator of the former premier's killing. All claims to the contrary are extensions of the Zionist campaign to destroy the Lebanese Resistance.

The Hindutva entity of India has been criminally occupying Kashmir for 63 years, how can such a regime have a 'huge stake in facilitating peace?' Since 1989, more than 100,000 innocents have been murdered, over 100,000 children were orphaned, over 22,000 women have been widowed, nearly 10,000 women have been raped, nearly 120,000 Kashmiris have been illegally detained and over 105,000 architectural structures have been razed by the occupying military. Mass graves have been found all over the occupied Valley. Military torture is common place in occupied Kashmir; sexual abuse, sleep deprivation, electrocution, beatings and stripping prisoners naked are only some of the acts of brutality that have been forced upon the people of Kashmir.

Not a single one of these ungodly crimes against humanity are mentioned by Wikileaks; the occupation itself isn't even mentioned. Instead, Assange's organization 'vindicates' the Hindutvadis by 'revealing' that the ISI coordinates terror attacks in occupied Afghanistan. More disgraceful Zionist propaganda. Indian officials have been almost as bold as the Zionist entity, stating that they are 'not concerned' about Wikileaks. Other officials have boasted that they are 'not embarrassed' by Cablegate. India is the Zionist entity's closest ally in Asia; the two racist regimes have collaborated in the occupation of Kashmir and spreading mayhem across Pakistan, and the fact that Hindutva isn't concerned or embarrassed by so-called leaks of secret documents is beyond suspicious; it is collusive.

The theory that Israel is vital to American security, or that it is a satellite of the American 'empire,' is typical leftist rubbish to downplay the crimes of Zionism and Zionist power in the US. It is also contradictory to the facts. America doesn't have a base in occupied Palestine, nor does it have any troops. It only stores minimal weaponry inside the Zionist entity, and this weaponry can be used by IOF at any time, without American permission. Israeli bases cannot be used by the United States. No US puppet that borders the land that Zion stole from Palestine can conduct reconnaissance over Israel, let alone use Zionist bases for taking off. At times, especially after the preemptive war of 1973, Israel has undermined the relations between America and other Middle Eastern nations. And due to the chokehold that the Zionist Lobby has on the US government, whenever Israel is being attacked in the international community, America runs like a dog to defend its owner. There is no American 'imperialism' in Israel, although there is plenty of Zionism in America. Israel serves no interest but its own, manipulating any nation that it needs to, including the genocidal US, to accomplish the goals of international Zionism.

Apart from being another ugly Zionist falsehood, it is an insult to the intelligence of the people to postulate that Israel has no 'assets' in occupied Iraq. The sanctions against Iraq, the occupation and subsequent genocide were designed by a neoconservative cabal with dual loyalties to the illegitimate state of Israel. No official from this exclusive Zionist group has been harmed by the Wikileaks cables; not one. Mossad has agents stationed across Iraq from Mosul to Fallujah to Baghdad to Najaf to Karbala, wreaking havoc on the Iraqi people with Israeli-made IEDs and car bombs. In 2004, there were casualties everyday from made-in-Zion IEDs, and in 2005, three out of five Iraqis that were murdered met their end due to an IED. Mossad operations continue to this very moment in Iraq, with the Israeli agency's masterpiece being the animalistic display of savagery at Sayedat al-Najat Cathedral in Karada, Baghdad, which claimed the lives of 58 Iraqi Christians. Wikileaks has done an excellent job at convincing the world that Israel has nothing to do with the annihilation of Iraq; but Assange's malicious smokescreen is as weak as a spider's web when challenged with the indestructible blade of the truth.

If it wasn't being presented as unquestionable gospel, the abominable claim that Muammar al-Gaddafi intimidated the British government into releasing Abdelbaset Mohmed Ali al-Megrahi would be exceedingly funny. The idea that Gaddafi, who was terrorized by Mossad throughout the 1980s, somehow bullied the British government, whose intelligence agency MI5 orchestrated the 7/7 terror attacks with Mossad, is a slander against al-Megrahi, whose life was ruined by the Lockerbie incident, and a deflection of evidence regarding who was really behind the attack. In fact, it was the British government intimidating and threatening Gaddafi. Al-Megrahi wasn't released due to Libyan intimidation, he was released because he was innocent; there wasn't a drop of evidence against him, and the Western conspiratorial charade couldn't last any longer. Lockerbie, like 7/7, 9/11, 26/11 and so many other recent 'terrorist' attacks blamed on Muslims, was a Mossad false flag intended to influence geopolitics to the detriment of Islamic nations. False flags, an Israeli speciality, haven't just been 'looked over' by Wikileaks, they've been deliberately left out for the sole benefit of the repulsive Zionist entity.

The cables dissected here are only a drop in the bucket of hundreds of documents 'released' during Cablegate. The Zionist propaganda speaks for itself. It is shameful that so many have accepted this proverbial waste as if it were a holy declaration spoken by a prophet. Simply shameful.

Targeted by Zion: Turkey and Iran

Since Zionist commandoes barbarically executed 9 Turkish peace activists in international waters on May 31st of this year, the relationship between Turkey and Israel has become severely strained and entered into a realm of complication. On the positive side, amidst calls from its citizenry, Ankara has taken several steps to disconnect itself from Zionism. Turkish intelligence completely cut its ties with Mossad. Turkey also cancelled three extremely lucrative military exercises directly after the Freedom Flotilla massacre. Turkey has also continually voted against the illegal sanctions against Iran and signed joint energy agreements with the Islamic Republic and Brazil, much to the dismay and the ZOG in America and the Zionist entity itself. Prime Minister Erdogan also defended Hezbollah against the Zionist-designed STL in his recent visit to Lebanon.

On the negative side however, all of Prime Minister Erdogan's harsh rhetoric against the Zionist regime, which he unleashed even while he was being threatened with Mossad assassination, has proven to be nothing more than just that: rhetoric. Throughout all of the condemning and slamming of Israel, Erdogan and other Turkish officials have continually called for an apology and compensation from the Zionist state, as recently as December 7th; as if an apology will undo the murder of 9 innocent peace activists. As if an apology will heal the pain of their families, or bring their killers to justice for crimes against humanity. Israel committed an act of war against Turkey, and Erdogan wants an apology? It extends beyond strangeness and becomes insanity.

Just days after the massacre, Turkish Foreign Minister Ahmet Davutoglu simplified everything by saying if Israel lifted the blockade against Gaza, Turkish-Israeli ties will 'normalize.' This normalization must also include the illegal 62-year occupation of Palestine, as well as the illegal occupations of Lebanese and Syrian lands, which Turkey has traditionally ignored while making $2.5 billion in imports and exports since 2000 via a free trade agreement with Tel Aviv. He also declared, 'The security of Israeli diplomats and Israeli tourists is our nation's honor. We will be making sure they are safe (130).' The citizens of Turkey were murdered by Israel, and Davutoglu is concerned about the safety of the defenders of murder and illegal occupation? Shouldn't his concern be with making his citizens safe, along with all those oppressed by Zionism? This politically correct square dance for the sake of pleasing Israel is absolutely revolting.

Disturbingly, while Erdogan showed solidarity with the Lebanese Resistance in his November trip to Lebanon, he also showed solidarity with Israel, unconscionably saying that when peace and security are restored in the region, Israel will 'win from this peace.' Odd would be an understatement for this remark. Israel is the reason for the lack of security and peace in the region. Israel is the oppressor, occupier, de-stabilizer, murderer, bomber, gangster, assassin, shooter and killer in the Middle East, from one end to the other. As long as this entity remains, peace will never be prospective. Zionism must end for peace to be a reality.

Furthermore, the most abhorrent part of Erdogan's behavior is his atrocious denial of the Armenian Genocide, one of history's greatest crimes in which the Young Turks movement systematically murdered 1.5 million innocent Armenians between 1915-1923. Erdogan made an even bigger fool out of himself when he preposterously claimed that Armenians 'exterminated' Turks. This continues the typical stance of all Turkish regimes, which have denied the Armenian Genocide for more than 90 years. The Armenian Genocide has always been an event attacked and denied by the Zionist media and Zionist lobby also, most notably the criminal ADL, due to the scarcely talked-about facts surrounding the perpetrators of it.

The Young Turks weren't Turkish Muslims as it is widely accepted, but Zionists of 'Jewish' origin with direct connections to B'nai B'rith, Zionist bankers and the founder of Irgun himself, mass murderer Vladimir Jabotinsky. The man who the Zionist Young Turks brought to power (and who also partook in their savage activities), and who is credited with the secularization of Turkey, Mustafa Kemal Ataturk, was no more a Muslim than vile Zionist Hillary Clinton; he, like his brethren in the Young Turks, had 'Jewish' roots and was known for constantly reciting prayers from the racist, unholy Talmud and the xenophobic Kabbalah. Turkey denies this shocking truth as well, sticking to the Zionist lie which is promoted to cause division between Muslims and Christians.

The historical cover-up of the Zionist nature of Ataturk and the Young Turks is pertinent to the character of Erdogan, because he was once an opponent of Ataturk's secular ideology, and spent time in a Turkish prison for 'inciting religious hatred' after reciting a poem with Islamic convictions. All of these anomalies, coupled with what comes after Wikileaks' released cables, prove that Erdogan is nothing more than an opportunistic coward, and it is no wonder that Lebanon's Armenian community courageously protested his visit to their country.

With Turkey, and Erdogan in particular, teetering on the brink of a radical foreign policy shift, in what would be a global game-changer, in comes Julian Assange and Wikileaks with yet another startling revelation: Turkey aided and abetted Al-Qaeda in occupied Iraq. Though Erdogan subsequently blasted the cables, he mentioned nothing about the undeniable fact that Al-Qaeda is a work of fiction, or that Israel is behind Wikileaks; he just barked and barked with his usual fiery rhetoric, and then kowtowed to Zionism when the power brokers in Tel Aviv called.

It is a direct result of the international embarrassment at the hands of Israel via Wikileaks' Cablegate, that Erdogan sent Turkish helicopters to Israel and told Benjamin Netanyahu that Turkey will coordinate NATO relief efforts inside the Zionist entity when massive forest fires erupted. It is this Zionist smear campaign that is the reason why Turkey is now engaged in high-level talks with the Israeli regime to 'mend' its relations with Palestine's occupier. And for what seemed impossible days after the Freedom Flotilla massacre, it is because of Cablegate that an official proposal has been drawn up for Israel to express regret for acting in self-defense and unintentionally killing the Turkish citizens aboard the Mavi Marmara, issue compensation to the families of the slain activists, while preventing prosecution of the IOF commandoes that carried out the murders. Justice, peace, solidarity and whatever little dignity Erdogan had, have gone out the window because of Wikileaks; proving that Turkey still is what it has been since the Zionist Young Turks obliterated the Ottoman Empire and exterminated 1.5 million innocent Armenians: an utter tool of Zionism. It is also evident that the calls of Huseyin Celik, a senior Turkish official who accused Israel of initiating the Cablegate 'leak,' have fallen upon deaf ears in Ankara.

Senior Israeli intelligence correspondent for Haaretz, Yossi Melman, recently wrote that Cablegate was the work of Mossad, and it was connected with several other recent events in the ongoing international Western intelligence campaign assaulting Iran. Benjamin Netanyahu has stated that Wikileaks proves that the Zionist entity is 'right' on Iran, and that the entire Middle East is concerned about Iran's 'nuclear ambitions.' This constant Israeli lordliness is a reflection of Cablegate eclipsing the Iraq War Logs in terms of the audacity of untruth about the Islamic Republic. Besides, what would a Wikileaks document dump be without Zionist propaganda against Iran?

The most talked about leaks have most certainly been those mentioning the leaders of the Gulf States expressing not just mere concern about Iran's nuclear capabilities, but fierce encouragement of an attack on the Islamic Republic. There are also cables regarding the 2009 Iranian elections, which Wikileaks calls a 'coup d'etat,' and that the revolutionary nation 'engineered' Ahmadinejad's victory. Other cables say that Iran has secretly purchased long-range missiles from North Korea. There are cables that say Iran is smuggling weapons out of Turkmenistan, in a violation of its neighbor's sovereignty. And of course, there is no shortage on the propaganda regarding Iran aggressively pursuing nuclear weapons, with one cable even suggesting that Pakistan is a 'regional competitor.'

First and foremost, the 2009 Iranian elections were anything but stolen; Mahmoud Ahmadinejad won by a landslide, attaining well over 60% of the votes submitted. There is not a single shred of evidence that Iran's elections were 'stolen,' but there is overwhelming evidence that the US, inspired by the Israeli Lobby, spent hundreds of millions of dollars on programs that would destabilize Iran and facilitate regime change. The Zionist media sold the Western masses a cockamamie story about fraudulent elections based on unsubstantiated reports from Twitter, where Mossad agents have been conducting cyber warfare through hasbara since Operation Cast Lead.

This subject however, with all of the facts, has been thoroughly documented by many activists, writers and scholars. The objective of Cablegate was to assault Iran diplomatically, fracturing its ties with the Arab region, as well as to foment 'sectarian' tension between Sunni and Shia, Arab and Persian. This miserly Zionist plot has failed however, because regardless of the feelings of the corrupt, US-owned leaders of the Gulf States, 88% of the Arab citizens view Israel as the predominant threat in the region, 77% view America as the threat, while a minute 10% view Iran as a threat; there is also overwhelming support for Iran's peaceful nuclear program. Ethnicity and religion are irrelevant; in defiance of US-Zionist efforts, Resistance will support Resistance always.

The attempted scheme to disrupt and destroy Iran's diplomatic relations with the Arab world, especially as Iran works with Syria and Saudi Arabia for peace in Lebanon, efforts which Sayyed Hassan Nasrallah has called 'sincere,' has also failed. Mahmoud Ahmadinejad has slammed Wikileaks as psychological warfare; he further said that the information wasn't leaked, but organized, and went on to say, 'We are friends with the regional countries and mischievous acts will not affect relations.' Iran's Parliament Speaker, Ali Larijani said that the enemies of regional stability are behind Wikileaks and it is only an attempt to promote discord. Iran's former Foreign Minister, Manouchehr Mottaki said the 'questionable' Wikileaks documents will not affect Iran's brotherly and friendly relations with the Gulf States.

Cablegate opened up the gates for two significant events: new, stronger illegal sanctions against the Islamic Republic by the United States, and another Mossad assassination of an Iranian scientist, Majid Shahriari. Jeffrey Goldberg, the Israeli-American journalist that spread horrific lies to promote the Zionist invasion of Iraq, used Cablegate to spread an even more ludicrous premise, that an Arab Lobby is supporting a war against Iran, and not a 'Jewish' Lobby. Zionist David Frum, Bush's former speechwriter and loathsome war criminal, has also used Cablegate to justify an all-out military offensive against Iran.

It is troubling, that many in the 'anti-war' movement have ignored the Zionist fingerprints all over Wikileaks, and have stated that an American war against Iran will never happen; they have outlandishly stated that there is no evidence of such a war, and even more outlandishly, that Wikileaks has exposed Iranian support of American 'imperialism.' It is troubling, that it will take another Zionist-designed genocide to awaken such persons from their media-induced slumber. The war against Iran isn't happening in the future, nor is it a fabrication; the US-Zionist war against Iran is taking place right now. And it has been for quite some time.

The United States has surrounded the Islamic Republic with gunboats on numerous occasions, halted Iranian ships for arms shipments to the Resistance of Gaza, financed and educated Iranian 'dissidents' to bring about a pro-Western regime totally disconnected from the Islamic Revolution, kidnaped Iranian diplomats in occupied Iraq, kidnaped Iranian military personnel on the Iranian border and then tortured them inside Iraq, continually spied on Iran and violated its sovereignty, attacked Iran's currency and its international financial affairs, and funded 'terrorist' proxies to carry out murderous attacks on innocents within Iran. The organization Jundullah, has waged barbaric warfare against the Islamic Republic, claiming thousands of lives; Jundullah is fully backed by the CIA and receives nearly $400 million a year from the US State Department. Mossad is also linked to Jundullah, providing training for the front operation, and coordinating several strikes against Iranian mosques. Ardeshire Hassanpour, a 44-year old Iranian nuclear scientist, was assassinated by Mossad in 2007. Just days before the Cablegate release, Israel skyjacked an Iranian plane for the 130th time since 1984. The Stuxnet computer virus, which originated in Israel, was unleashed on Iran's industrial sector, including its nuclear power plant, by the Zionist entity in September of this year. Will this suffice as enough evidence of acts of war against Iran? Everything aforesaid is only part of the American-Israeli onslaught against the Islamic Revolution; to weaken it before the long-planned invasion and occupation.

Wikileaks, with extensive help from the Zionist media, has broken Turkey and deepened international Zionism's war against Iran. Wikileaks' largest success however, has been its coopting of the worldwide activist network, totally blinding it from seeing its function as the archer for every target that the Zionist entity considers an enemy.

Wikileaks Exposed: The CIA, Google, PROMIS and More

Some authors and writers have suggested that an intelligence service may be behind Wikileaks, and others, like Pakistani Army General Mirza Aslam Beg have said outright that only CIA and Mossad could be behind such an operation. The General is spot on; Wikileaks has several connections to US intelligence, and these connections uncover several mysteries about Wikileaks, including who they are exactly and what exactly it is that they do.

Co-Founder of Wikileaks, John Young, whom Julian Assange calls Wikileaks' spiritual godfather, left the organization in its early stages after labeling it a CIA operation for data-mining. Though Young has recently changed his position for one of support, the members of Wikileaks' Advisory Board confirm Young's original suspicions. One of these members is security expert (and Wikileaks security designer) Ben Laurie, who is currently working on several projects for Google.

Google's links to the intelligence community are vast; the internet giant has a security agreement with the NSA, the electronic surveillance organization responsible for spying on millions of Americans, a partnership with the CIA via its joint business venture with the agency's investment wing, In-Q-Tel, in the purchase of an internet monitoring organization, Recorded Future, a working relationship with the Zionist Organization of America, profoundly linked to the Israeli military establishment, to fight anti-Semitism and 'anti-Israel propaganda,' and a disturbing research project in Tel Aviv, where Zionist founders Sergey Brin and Larry Page have major ties, to delve into the aspects of the human genome and genetic data-mining. The Google ties alone are enough to discredit and expose the entire Wikileaks operation.

Wikileaks is being heavily funded by Mossad and corrosive, criminal Zionist billionaire George Soros, and is also directly involved with a $20 million CIA operation involving Chinese 'dissidents' trained by the agency to hack into China's computers and reroute the implanted viruses to American government computer systems, all for the purpose of increasing the cyber defense budget, a plan that began when dual-citizen of Israel and Mossad operative Amit Yoran was elected Cyber Security Czar by war criminal George W. Bush in 2003. Amit Yoran and his family were a key part of the Mossad false attack on September 11th; just one more example of more than 60 years of Israeli espionage against the United States, including cyber warfare (190). Some of these 'dissidents' are Wang Dan, Xiao Qiang, and Wang Youcai, all members of Wikileaks' Advisory Board. This operation is an extension of the CIA's 'Operation Yellowbird,' an earlier scheme in which the CIA supported the subversive activities of 'pro-democracy' Chinese citizens and rescued them from prosecution at the hands of the Chinese government.

Is there any mention of this CIA sabotage against China in any of the Cablegate documents? Obviously not. What about Zionist spying? Nowhere to be found. Instead, predictably, there are cables blaming China for espionage against the United States and Google; considering the security connections of Google with CIA, NSA and the Israeli military, this is beyond asinine. It is clear, that this is just more damage control to completely cover up the CIA-Wikileaks operation.

Another member of Wikileaks' Advisory board is Tashi Namgyal Khamsitsang, former representative of the Dalai Lama and president of the Tibetan Association of Washington. George Soros is a major financial contributor to the Dalai Lama, the 'spiritual' leader of the Tibetan 'struggle for independence.' The Soros-founded International Crisis Group vociferously promotes the Tibetan cause, spreading falsehoods about Chinese ethnic cleansing and other concocted crimes against humanity. This is another Zionist-engineered farce to distract the masses from the real struggles of Palestine, Kashmir, Iraq, Afghanistan, Somalia, Yemen and Pakistan. The Tibetan freedom movement has been funded by the CIA for decades through its National Endowment For Democracy (NDE) to weaken China's social fabric; NDE was used by the agency to provide millions per year to its Asian clients, including $180,000.00 per year for the Dalai Lama himself. NDE is an integral part of none other than the CIA's Operation Yellowbird. Any mention in the Cablegate documents of the CIA's subversive connections to Tibet? Absolutely not; but there is plenty of sewage about China oppressing Tibet and restricting the Dalai Lama's movements.

The remaining members of Wikileaks' Advisory Board are Phillip Adams and Francisco 'Chico' Whitaker Ferreira. Adams is a columnist for The Australian, a newspaper owned by News Corporation, the media
